

Wild Man Adventures Inc. Refund Policy

Wild Man Adventures Inc. (outfitter) has the following refund policy as it pertains to all deposits and fees paid to them by a client for any and all services provided.

- Within 15 days of booking a hunt, a $500 deposit for each species you are booking to hunt is required. The deposit can be cash, personal check, certified check or money order. Outfitter is not responsible for cash being sent via mail.
- If client does not draw license for any species that client has put a deposit on, clients deposit will be refunded in full to client within 30 days after the outfitter has been notified by the client that the client was unsuccessful in the draw. If client fails to notify the outfitter within 30 days (based on actual WGFDD license draw date), of not drawing a license in the license draw the deposit will not be returned and kept by the outfitter.
- If the client so chooses, due to not drawing a license (this is refunded by the WGFDD), any deposits may be held by the outfitter as a deposit for a hunt the following year or until the hunter is able to draw a license. This request shall be done within 30 days (based on actual WGFDD license draw date), of the client not drawing a license in the license draw. Failure to notify the outfitter within 30 days after not drawing a license that client wants deposit money held for a hunt the following year shall result in client not getting a deposit refund and not being booked for a hunt the following year.
- Within 45 days of clients starting hunting date, all remaining fees shall be paid in full to the outfitter. Any money paid as a deposit shall be applied to the total hunt price. These fees shall be paid by cash, personal check, certified check or money order. Outfitter is not responsible for cash being sent via mail.

In addition to the above, full refunds for all deposits and fees shall only be returned by the outfitter to the client in the following situations. However, no refunds shall be granted after December 31 of the year which the hunt was booked. Refunds shall be returned from the outfitter to the client within 30 days.

- In the case of death of the licensee, any person who has the authority to represent the deceased as provided by a court order shall submit a written request for a refund supported by a copy of the death certificate.
- In the case of death of the licensee's spouse, parents, grandparents, lineal descendants and their spouse, step-parent, step-sibling, step-children, father-in-law, mother-in-law, brother-in-law, sister-in-law, step-son-in-law and step-daughter-in-law, the licensee shall submit a written request for a refund supported by the death certificate.
- The date of death on such certificate shall have occurred during the season, resulting in the license not being able to participate in the majority of the season.
- In case of incapacitating illness or injury of the licensee supported by physicians sworn statement.

- Military personnel who receive Permanent Change of Station orders or are assigned away from their home duty station on Temporary Duty Orders, all of this being supported by a copy of official military orders from the Armed Forces of the United States.
- When the Department determines one hundred percent of the hunting opportunity and access to the hunt area has been closed due to administrative actions of the state or federal government in closing of the public access to public lands due to natural disasters.
- An error on the part of the department or its authorized agent where the applicant has been issued a licensee not requested.
